Investigator's notes

At 12h45 I spoke with Rose, dispatcher at Yonker Trucking Inc. [REDACTED] She will pass the message that the CEO/owner of the company needs to call me back urgently.

At 13h20, I received a call from Diane MAGAS, lawyer for Jonker Trucking Inc. [REDACTED] stating that the owner of the company refused to talk to the police and answer any questions. I let MAGAS know that a truck bearing plate number [REDACTED] registered to Jonker Trucking was determined to be on Wellington Avenue and that this vehicle may be subject to anything that falls under the Emergency Measures Regulations. MAGAS stated that she would pass the message along.

On 2022-02-17 at 1725 hours Cpl. KINCADE spoke with Kim VANDERVEGTE at Jonker Trucking. Cpl. KINCADE did not realize that Cpl. PARENT had already contacted the company.

- Yes they know that the truck is there.
- Would not give the driver's name; said that the drivers are being rotated through.
- She said to google Harold JONKER. He is the owner.
- Several photos of Jonker Trucking trucks on convoytraitors.ca.

Narvey is potentially exempt from the EMR if he is registered under the Indian Act.

Information collected: At 1835, Cpl. Townsend called telephone number [REDACTED]. A male answered and when Cpl. Townsend if he was speaking to Wayne Narvey, the male caller said yes and asked what the call was about. Cpl. Townsend said it was about a 1989 Winnebago Chieftain. Mr. Narvey asked to be called back in 20 minutes.

Cpl. Townsend called back at 1900 and spoke again to Mr. Garvey. Cpl. Townsend said that he had been informed that Mr. Garvey's Winnebago was potentially parked in one of the areas covered by the EMR and that he and the vehicle may be subject to the Regulation. Cpl. Townsend informed him that he did not have to say anything about the vehicle or speak to the police. Cpl. Townsend asked if any police officer at the protests had already spoken to him or informed him of the Regulations and possible enforcement and he said they had not. He then suggested that other vehicles may be subject to these new Regs but that he was under the impression that since his was a residence, that it would be treated differently. Cpl. Townsend said he was not certain but did not believe the vehicle would be exempt. Mr. Narvey said he ha every right to protest peacefully and it had been peaceful the entire time. He said that in future, police could contact his lawyer. He provided the name Andrew Wood and telephone [REDACTED]

Mr. Narvey was pleasant during the call however he did mention being a bit hard of hearing.

Company's involvement: On 2022-02-18 at 0815 hrs Sgt. BERTRAND called the phone number for McCracken Towing Inc. and spoke to Greg MCCRACKEN, the owner. MCCRACKEN confirmed he has a truck on Parliament Hill, believed Brenden BROWN is the driver. MCCRACKEN told Sgt. BERTRAND that BROWN has tried to leave the blockade but is blocked in. MCCRACKEN said they spoke to the police multiple times about this. Sgt. BERTRAND asked MCCRACKEN's for BROWN's cell phone number. MCCRACKEN told Sgt. BERTRAND he did not have with him and hung up. Sgt. BERTRAND tried BROWN's cell phone number found on PROS. The voicemail confirmed it is BROWN's number, but no answer.
